

Campion Hall Bill of Rights

As Campion Residents, we have the right to live and learn in a clean, safe, and respectful environment. We need to be respectful of each other, ourselves, guests, and the environment in which we live.

As members of this community it is our responsibility to ...

- Be respectful to the Residence Life Staff, Department of Public Safety Staff, Prichard Staff, other members of the Fairfield community, or guests of members of the Fairfield community.
- Stay 30 feet away from the building when smoking, and if we see that people are too close to the building we will ask them to move 30 feet away.
- Keep the common areas (lounges, hallways, elevators, laundry room, restrooms, and area surrounding Campion Hall) in better condition than we found them.
- Wash dishes and other items in the 2nd floor lounge sink not in bathrooms or water fountains.
- Be respectful of bathroom etiquette (i.e. flushing toilets, not leaving things in shower, etc)
- Remove trash from common areas inside the building to the dumpster behind Campion Hall.
- Keep the trash rooms from overflowing; if we see it is full we will tell the Residence Life Staff or Prichard Staff.
- Recycle when possible and not contaminate the recycling efforts of others.
- Be respectful of my own and others laundry in the laundry room with regards to time and placement.
- Make sure that exterior doors are not propped.
- Be respectful of quiet hours
- Be respectful of courtesy hours
- Check bulletin boards and other postings in the building for information about the Campion and Fairfield communities.
- Not tolerate any graffiti or damage to the building and will inform Residence Life Staff Members and Public Safety Officers if anything happens.
- To be accepting of others.
- To confront inappropriate behavior that is racist, sexist, homophobic, etc.
- Embrace the things we have in common and the ways in which we differ, and grow from both experiences.
- Actively seek to build up our community through quality interactions with each other.
- Be respectful of Fairfield University policies.
- Remind each other when a person's behavior affects others in the community.
- Become involved. We will take a part in the activities of Campion Hall in order to share our ideas, learn from others, and make our home a place we are proud of.
