

Curriculum Vitae

Dr. David Lindsay Crawford
Assistant Professor
Department of Sociology and Anthropology
Fairfield University
North Benson Road, Fairfield CT 06824 USA
(203) 254-4000 x3454
DCrawford@mail.fairfield.edu
www.faculty.fairfield.edu/dcrawford

Education

- 2001 Ph.D. Anthropology, University of California, Santa Barbara
Dissertation: "Work and Identity in the Moroccan High Atlas"
1996 M.A. Anthropology, University of California, Santa Barbara
1989 B.A. American Studies, California State University, Fullerton

Selected Publications

- 2006 "The Temporality of Resistance" in Revisiting Resistance: The Future of Freedom, ed. Robert Fletcher. New York: Nova Press.
2005 "Labor of the Undead: Segmentarity, Globalization and the Temporality of Inequality" in Prologues: La revue maghrébine du livre. No. 32. Rabat: Morocco. Pp. 24-34.
2005 "Royal Interest in Local Culture: The Politics and Potential of Morocco's Imazighen" in Nationalism and Minority Identities in Islamic Societies, ed. Maya Shatzmiller. Montreal: McGill-Queens University Press. Pp. 164-194.
2004 "Amazigh Activism and the Moroccan State" (with Paul Silverstein) in The Middle East Report #233, ed. Chris Toensing. Washington, D.C.: MERIP. Pp. 44-48.
2003 "Arranging the Bones: Culture, Time and In/equality in Berber Labor Organization" in Ethnos Vol. 68, No. 4. Pp. 463-486.
2002 "The Intellectual Economy of an Anthropology of Change" in Anthropology in Action Vol. 9, No. 1. Pp. 3-12.
2002 "Morocco's Invisible Imazighen" in The Journal of North African Studies Vol. 7, No. 1. Pp. 53-70.
2002 "The Saliency of Local Labor Organization in Morocco's High Atlas" in Sustainable Livelihoods and Poverty Alleviation, UNEP Mountain Forum / Bishkek Global Mountain Summit.
2001 "How 'Berber' Matters in the Middle of Nowhere" in The Middle East Report #219, ed. Chris Toensing. Washington, D.C.: MERIP. Pp. 20-25.
2000 "Essentially Amazigh: Urban Berbers and the Global Village" (with K.E. Hoffman) in The Arab-African and Islamic Worlds: Interdisciplinary Studies, eds. R. Kevin Lacey and Ralph M. Coury. New York: Peter Lang. Pp. 117-34.

Selected Fellowships and Grants

- 2003-2004 Fulbright Serial Grant – The Social Organization of Migration in Highland Morocco
2002 Summer Academy Fellowship for Mitarbeiterin Arbeitskreis Moderne und Islam, Wissenschaftskolleg zu Berlin.
2000-2001 London School of Economics Visiting Student Researcher, Department of Anthropology
1998-1999 Social Science Research Council (SSRC) -- Dissertation Research Fellowship
1998-1999 American Institute of Maghrib Studies (AIMS) -- Dissertation Research Fellowship
1997-1998 Foreign Language Area Studies Fellowship (FLAS), American Language Institute, Fes, Morocco

Selected Presentations

"Globalization Begins at Home: Children's Wage Labor and the High Atlas Household," at the conference "Berbers and Others: Shifting Parameters of Ethnicity in the Contemporary Maghrib," Harvard University Center for Middle Eastern Studies, April 29-30, 2006.

"Temporalities of Inequality and Timeframes of Development" at the Society for Applied Anthropology meetings, Vancouver, B.C., March 30, 2006.

"Feminizing the Hinterland: High Atlas Women, Social Theory, and the Ordering of Rural Amazigh Society." Paper presented at The Berbers and Other Minorities in North Africa, Oregon State University, Portland, OR. May 13, 2005.

"The End of the World (as we know it): Offensive Anthropology at the Imperial Center." Paper presented at The Future of Anthropology, California Undergraduate Anthropology Conference, University of California Santa Barbara, Santa Barbara, CA on May 15, 2004.

"Arranging the Bones: Culture and In/equality in Berber Labor Organization" presented at the Wissenschaftskolleg, Berlin. July 25, 2002.

"Women's Social Networks and Tribal Politics in Pre-Colonial Morocco" presented at Al-Akhawayn University, Ifrane, Morocco. July 11, 2002.

"The Political Economy of Berber Identity in Morocco" for an invited panel on "Nationalism and Minority Identity in Islamic Societies" at the University of Western Ontario. December 8, 2001.

"Cultivating Identity in the Moroccan High Atlas" presented at the American Institute for Maghrib Studies (AIMS) Graduate Student Conference, University of Chicago. April 21, 2001.

"The Global Order from the Edge of the Grid: Modernity in the Moroccan High Atlas" presented in the University of California, Santa Cruz seminar series. April 16, 2001.

"The Intellectual Economy of an Anthropology of Change" presented at the conference "The Anthropology of Change" London School of Economics. November 24, 2000.

"Structuring Inequality in the Moroccan High Atlas" American Anthropological Association (AAA) national meetings, Chicago. November 1999.

"On Top of the Middle of the Edge of Nowhere: The Human Circuits of the Moroccan Highlands" Middle Eastern Studies Association (MESA) national meetings, Chicago. November 1998.

"The Social Foundation of Berber Identity Formation" Middle Eastern Studies Association (MESA) national meetings, San Francisco, CA. November 1997.

Teaching Experience

2006 Visiting Assistant Professor, Anthropology, University of California, Santa Barbara (UCSB)

2003 – 2006 Assistant Professor, Sociology and Anthropology / International Studies, Fairfield University, Fairfield, Connecticut

1997 – 2006 University Courses Developed and Taught

Islamic Societies and Cultures

Culture and Inequality

Ethnographic Knowledge and Practice

Introduction to Cultural Anthropology

North African Culture and Society

Borderlands

Introduction to Contemporary Social Theory

Nationalism and the State

Anthropological Approaches to Social Organization

Technology and Culture