

John Moore

My Post-Grad Journey:

After graduating from Fordham law school, I was an Assistant District Attorney for 14 years in the Bronx DA's office. Then I was appointed as a judge of the Criminal Court of NYC. Five years later I was elevated to NYS Supreme Court. I retired from full time service after 31 years on the bench but continue to serve part time as a Judicial hearing officer. I have been married to my wife Caryn for 30 years and we have a daughter, Alycia.

What is your favorite Fairfield University memory?

My favorite memories are the times I spent with my roommate Ed Maher both on and off campus, going to basketball games and my time as Executive Chainman of the Student Government.
