WELCOME

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS AND SCHOLARS

FAIRFIELD UNIVERSITY
WELCOME!
Welcome, and congratulations once again on your acceptance and enrollment at Fairfield University. This guidebook has been designed to simplify the next steps in the process and to answer questions you may have about your arrival to campus.

For more information, contact the Office of Student Engagement at:

About Fairfield

The Office of Student Engagement, International Student Life, assists all international students and scholars with visa and immigration matters as well as adjusting to life at Fairfield University.

Our office is located in Barone Campus Center: Room 96, and we are open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. EST. Contact us via e-mail at international@fairfield.edu or call +1-203-254-4110.

International Orientation is mandatory for all new incoming F1 and J1 students. Topics covered include required immigration overviews and information about the university resources such as the Health Center, Residence Life, Counseling & Psychological Services, Department of Public Safety, Course Registration, the Library, etc. There are opportunities for students to open bank accounts, register for cell phone plans, shop for essential items, and get their university StagCard (student identification card). Information about Orientation dates will be emailed the semester before your arrival.

Fairfield University is a comprehensive Jesuit institution that prepares students for leadership and service in a constantly changing world. Founded in 1942 by the Society of Jesus, the University has grown from an initial class of 303 undergraduate male students in 1947 into a coeducational university of more than 5,000 undergraduate and graduate students. Along the way, the University has awarded more than 45,000 degrees since 1951, and has developed a reputation for educational excellence both regionally and nationally.

Fairfield University is proud of its identity as a Jesuit and Catholic university, an identity that gives rise to our vibrant institutional mission: education in the liberal arts, sciences and professions that prepares students to lead their communities with insight, empathy, critical rigor and a determination to serve and promote justice.
Preparing for Fairfield

About Fairfield

The New York Metropolitan area, also known as the Tri-State area, includes New York (NY), Connecticut (CT) and New Jersey (NJ). Many students who attend Fairfield are from these areas.

Town of Fairfield

The historic shoreline town of Fairfield offers a peaceful oasis for study and recreation. Families and students can enjoy all the town has to offer. They can also hop on a train and — in less than an hour — arrive in New York City to take in a Broadway show, or head east and enjoy the vibrancy of historic New Haven. Have a little more time? Students can cheer on the Boston Red Sox at Fenway, jump on a ski lift at majestic Mt. Tom, or catch a wave on the beaches of Rhode Island!

Pre-departure Planning

To ensure your successful transition to Fairfield University, students will need to start planning before arriving in the United States:

- U.S. Department of State
  Information about how to apply for a visa on travel.state.gov.
- Study in the States
  Study in the States offers free government resources that explain the rules and regulations governing the international student process in the United States. Visit studyinthestates.dhs.gov.

Important Documents

If you are coming to study in the United States for the first time, you will need to follow certain procedures in order to acquire the necessary documentation allowing you to study at Fairfield. The documents you will need are:

- A valid passport
- A valid U.S. visa
- A valid Form I-20 (only if you are coming as an F1 student)
- A valid DS-2019 (only if you are coming as a J1 student or scholar)
- Declaration of finances
- Form I-94

Passport

The passport is a document issued by your government giving you permission to travel outside of your country. It is renewed through your embassy or the nearest consul and it serves as your identity documentation in a foreign country. Make sure to keep your passport in a safe place. You should also keep a copy of your passport in a safe place in case the original is lost or stolen. Your embassy will be able to issue a replacement more promptly, if you can provide them with a copy of the original. In order for you to maintain your legal status in the United States, your passport must remain current at all times. For passport renewal, your embassy may need a letter verifying that you are a full-time student. You may request such a letter from the Office of Student Engagement.
Preparing for Fairfield

APPLYING FOR A UNITED STATES VISA

What is a Visa?

A visa allows a foreign citizen to travel to a U.S. port of entry and request permission from the U.S. immigration officer to enter the United States. It does not guarantee entry into the U.S. For more information about the definition of a visa, as well as policies and procedures regarding visas, please visit the State Department Visa Home page.

What is SEVIS and SEVP?

What should you know about it?

The Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP) is designed to help the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and Department of State better monitor school and exchange programs and F, M, and J category visitors. Exchange visitor and student information is maintained in the Student and Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS). SEVIS is an Internet-based system that maintains accurate and current information on nonimmigrant students (F and M visa), exchange visitors (J visa), and their dependents (F-2, M-2, and J-2). SEVIS enables schools and program sponsors to transmit mandatory information and event notifications via the Internet, to the DHS and Department of State (DOS) throughout a student or exchange visitor's stay in the United States.

Applying for a Visa

Please be aware, information may change. You should visit the Department of State’s website for the most current requirements. As part of the visa application process, an interview at the embassy consular section is required for visa applicants from age 14 through 79, with few exceptions. Persons age 13 and younger, and age 80 and older, generally do not require an interview, unless requested by embassy or consulate. The waiting time for an interview appointment for applicants can vary, so early visa application is strongly encouraged. If you do not have enough time to obtain your visa before your program start date, you will be unable to start your study at Fairfield University that semester. Visa wait times for interview appointments and visa processing time information for each U.S. Embassy or Consulate worldwide is available on most embassy websites. Learn how to schedule an appointment for an interview, pay the application processing fee, review embassy specific instructions, and much more by visiting the Embassy or Consulate website where you will apply. During the visa application process, usually at the interview, an ink-free, digital fingerprint scan will be quickly taken.

Some visa applications require further administrative processing, which takes additional time after the visa applicant’s interview by a Consular Officer. Also, because each student’s personal and academic situation is different; two students applying for same visa may be asked different questions and be required to submit different additional documents.

Required Documentation

Documents and processes for obtaining a U.S. visa are subject to change, and may vary by country. Please confirm required documentation on your home country’s U.S. Embassy webpage. Each applicant for either an F-1 or J-1 visa must submit these forms and documentation as explained below:

- Form I-20 or DS-2019. You will need to submit a SEVIS generated form, which was provided to you by your school. You and your school official must sign the I-20 or DS-2019.
- Online Nonimmigrant Visa Electronic Application, Form DS-160. Visit the DS-160 webpage to learn more about the DS-160 online process.
- A passport valid for travel to the United States and with a validity date at least six months beyond the applicant’s intended period of stay in the United States (unless country-specific agreements provide exemptions). If more than one person is included in the passport, each person desiring a visa must complete an application.
- One (1) 2x2 photograph.
- A Machine Readable Visa (MRV) fee receipt to show payment of the visa application fee.
- The SEVIS I-901 fee receipt.

All applicants should be prepared to provide:

- Transcripts and diplomas from previous institutions attended.
- Financial evidence that shows you or your parents who are sponsoring you have sufficient funds to cover your tuition and living expenses during the period of your intended study. For example, if you or your sponsor is a salaried employee, please bring income tax documents and original bank books and/or statements. If you or your sponsor own a business, please bring business registration, licenses, etc., and tax documents, as well as original bank books and/or statements.

What are the Required Visa Fees?

- Nonimmigrant visa application processing fee - For current fees for Department of State government services check the Department of State’s website. You will need to provide a receipt showing the visa application processing fee has been paid, when you come for your visa interview.
- Visa issuance fee - Additionally, if the visa is issued, there will be an additional visa issuance reciprocity fee, if applicable. Please consult the Visa Reciprocity Tables on the Department of State’s website to find out if you must pay a visa issuance reciprocity fee and what the fee amount is. If there is a fee for issuance for the visa, it is as equal as possible to the fee charged to United States citizens by the applicant’s country of nationality.

TYPES OF VISA

There are 65 different types of non-immigrant visas. These categories are determined based on the purpose of the foreigner’s visit to the United States. There are 65 different types of non-immigrant visas. These categories are determined based on the purpose of the foreigner’s visit to the United States. Of these 65 categories, only B visas (for tourism and business), F-2 visas (dependents of F-1 students), and C visas (transit visas) are not legally allowed to enroll full-time in a degree-seeking program. As an international student coming to the United States, you will need either an F-1 student status or J-1 exchange visitor status.

The F-1 student visa permits an individual to enter the United States for full-time study at an authorized institution in the United States. To obtain F-1 status, it is necessary to present a Form I-20 (Certificate of Eligibility) to an American Embassy. The J-1 exchange visitor status permits the individual to enter the United States for study, teaching, research, or training. The individual presents a Form DS-2019 to an American Embassy abroad to obtain a J-1 visa. If she is obligated to engage in the activities specified on the Form DS-2019 while in the United States. Similarly to Form I-20, Form DS-2019 is a government document, which certifies your eligibility to come to Fairfield University as an exchange student, professor or research scholar. This form clearly defines the parameters and conditions of your exchange program as defined by the sponsor. You need a valid DS-2019 to obtain a J-1 exchange visitor visa for your stay in the United States. A DS-2019 can only be obtained from Fairfield University once you have been admitted to an approved program at Fairfield University.

IMMUNIZATION REQUIREMENTS

All students must complete and submit the Fairfield University Medical Report Form by email to the Health Center (health@fairfield.edu). Please visit fairfield.edu/immunization for all requirements. Immunization requirements are strictly enforced. You will need to be in compliance in order to register for classes.

All students born after January 1st, 1957 are required under Connecticut law to provide documentation of the following immunizations:

- Current Tetanus/Diphtheria booster (within the past 10 years)
- 2 doses of vaccine against Mumps, Measles, and Rubella (MMR)
- 2 doses of Varicella vaccine or lab result/health care provider confirming immunity
- 1 dose of Meningitis vaccine (MCV4) if living on campus
- 3 series of Hepatitis B vaccine are strongly recommended

Remember:
- Forms must be completed in English
- Dates should be listed as month/day/year
- Students from countries with high rates of tuberculosis (listed on the Medical Report Form) must also be tested for tuberculosis.

Students testing positive must also have a chest x-ray.

Vaccination with BCG does not preclude tuberculosis testing.

More details and copies of the medical form can be found online at fairfield.edu/immunization.

We strongly recommend having your physical examination and any necessary immunizations completed prior to your arrival; it will be much cheaper than getting them done in the US, and you will not be able to move into housing or register for classes without this confirmation. If you have any questions, please e-mail health@fairfield.edu.

HEALTH INSURANCE REQUIREMENTS

All students and their dependents regardless of the visa status at Fairfield University are required to purchase Fairfield’s international student health insurance because it meets the requirements of the University and the US government. The Office of Student Engagement will advise students on the cost of insurance, and the Bursar will charge students’ accounts. Insurance must be paid in full to the Bursar, and there are no monthly payment plans available.

Any questions about the coverage and amount being charged for insurance should be sent to international@fairfield.edu. For questions about payment methods, please refer to the Financial Obligations and Payment Information sheet, included in your welcome packet.

You will be enrolled in Fairfield’s insurance prior to the start of your academic semester. Upon enrollment, you will be given instructions on how to log in to the insurance website and e-mailed a link to print out your insurance ID card. This will be explained further during Orientation.

TRANSPORTATION FROM THE AIRPORT

Most students come into the United States through John F. Kennedy Airport in New York City. Others arrive through LaGuardia Airport in New York City or through Newark Airport in New Jersey.

Fairfield University is an hour and fifteen minutes by car from Kennedy or LaGuardia, barring heavy traffic. Newark Airport is two hours from Fairfield. There are two public means of transportation from these airports:

1. GO Airport Shuttle Connecticut, formerly known as Prime Time Shuttle, travels from Kennedy, LaGuardia and Newark Airports directly to the Fairfield University campus and they offer a special rate for Fairfield students. Contact GO Airport Shuttle for current rates and fares. We prefer this service because it will bring you directly to campus. For more information, please visit 2theairport.com/universities/fairfielduniversity.php.

You may contact GO Airport Shuttle at the Ground Transportation Desk in the baggage claim area of the terminal. Pick up the phone of the carrier that you choose to hire and tell the dispatcher that you would like to go to Fairfield University. He/she will give you further directions.

If you are coming from Boston, take the Amtrak train and connect either at New Haven or Bridgeport. From either New Haven or Bridgeport you can take a Metro-North train to the Fairfield station. You can then take Fairfield Cab to campus. If you have any questions, or need special accommodations, please contact Office of Student Engagement at 203-254-4110, or by e-mail prior to your travel.
ARRIVING AT FAIRFIELD

FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS AND PAYMENT INFORMATION
Complete payments include University tuition, health insurance, and any other applicable fees billed to the student account.

Full-Time Graduates (MA/HS/ MFA/ DNP):
Payment of all University charges is due August 15 for fall semester and January 1 for spring semester. Tuition and fees can be found online at Fairfield.edu/graduate tuitionfees.

Full-Time Undergraduates (BA/BS):
Payment for all University charges is due August 1 for fall semester and January 1 for spring semester. Tuition and fees can be found online at Fairfield.edu/undergraduate tuitionfees.

Payment can be made via Fairfield.flywire.com. Holidays and other celebrations may delay processing of international payment therefore, it is recommended that students initiate their payment at least 10 business days before the payment deadline to ensure timely processing. Incoming payments must be limited to the cost of University tuition, fees, and health insurance charged to the student account for the current semester. Any excess funds will be held on the student account toward the following semester charges. For Fall and Spring semesters, full-time Graduate students may utilize a monthly payment plan for tuition and fees (not including health insurance). There is a processing fee for the payment plan. If you choose to utilize the monthly payment plan, the first installment is due at registration. This first installment must include 33% of tuition plus 100% of all fees and 100% of health insurance. Details of the payment plan can be found online at Fairfield.edu/payment plans.

For the Summer semester, there is no monthly payment plan option.

REPORTING YOUR ARRIVAL TO FAIRFIELD UNIVERSITY
U.S. immigration laws require all new students report to the University after their initial arrival in the country. Failure to do so may result in a termination of program and can lead to serious consequences for your legal status and ability to return to the U.S. in the future. Students will need to update their address and report their arrival to the Office of Student Engagement. International Student Life. For more information, please visit Fairfield.edu/internationalstudentlife.

GETTING SETTLED

Cell Phones
Since students may already have a cell phone, they will need to inquire about its use in the U.S. Many major cell phone companies offer international plans. Common cell phone providers in the U.S. include AT&T, Verizon, T-Mobile, Sprint, and others. Representatives from one of the above cell phone providers will typically be at International Orientation, but you are not limited to enrolling in just that company. Please be prepared that cell phone plans in the United States tend to be of a higher cost than other countries.

Telephone Services
If you live in Fairfield, the area code is 203.

Department of Public Safety
To report any emergency, students should dial ext. 4090 or 203-254-4090. All students are to program the DPS phone number into their cell phones prior to arriving on campus.

Directory Assistance
Call 411 to get an operator. There is a fee.

Calling outside the U.S.
Call 011 + country code + city code + phone number.

In the U.S. but calling outside local area code
Call 1 + three digit area code + seven digit phone number.

Calling in local area code
Call the area code + seven-digit phone number.

On-campus to another on-campus phone
Call only the last four digits of the phone number, which is an extension.

On-campus phone to an off-campus phone
Dial 1 + three digit area code + seven digit phone number.

When to Apply for Social Security
Students must be physically present in the U.S. in order to apply for a Social Security Number. Students must also have a job offer. The Social Security Administration will need to verify your legal entry into the country before issuing a Social Security Number. The Social Security Administration recommends that F-1 and J-1 students wait a minimum of 10 days after arrival in the U.S.

J-1 visiting scholars must wait 10 business days after arrival in the U.S. before issuing a Social Security Number. Administration will need to verify your legal entry into the country before issuing a Social Security Number. The Social Security Administration recommends that F-1 and J-1 students wait a minimum of 10 days after arrival in the U.S.

Connecticut Driver’s License
An International Driver Permit (IDP) is an English translation of a foreign language driver’s license issued by a foreign country.

Students and Visitors to Connecticut:
An International Driver Permit (IDP) is not considered a valid license. It must accompany the valid foreign license. Connecticut permits a student or visitor to operate a motor vehicle in Connecticut for a period of up to one year with his or her foreign license. If the license is in a language other than English or Spanish, the license must be accompanied by an IDP, which serves as an English translation of the foreign license.

Non-U.S. citizens seeking a first-time driver’s license must go to the DMV Office. Prior to going to the DMV office, applicants must fill out the Online International Student Request form on the International Student Life page. Once you begin the form, be sure to select “Driver’s License/State ID” and then follow the instructions to complete the form. Students must bring an I-94 document, passport and proof of Connecticut residency, which can be proven in the form of 2 pieces of mail addressed to your official residence in the U.S. First-time drivers must take a knowledge test and road test before being issued a license. Appointments are mandatory in order to take the knowledge and road tests. To study for the road test, students can download a copy of the Connecticut Driver’s Manual as well as sample tests. Students must supply an insured and registered vehicle for the road test. For more information, please visit ct.gov/dmv.

IDENTIFICATION
Passport and Arrival Documents
The students’ passport will be their main form of identification until they get their Fairfield University StagCard or Connecticut Driver’s License.

The StagCard is Fairfield University’s official identification card. Students can have their picture taken when they arrive on campus. Students are expected to carry the card at all times.

The StagCard Office is located in the Lower Level of the Barone Campus Center. The office is open Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 9:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. For more information, please visit fairfield.edu/stagcard.

Social Security Number
A Social Security number (SSN) is required for everyone who works in the U.S., including non-immigrants. If you are planning to work in the U.S. and have an offer of employment, you must apply for a Social Security Number. If you have any questions, please contact us at international@fairfield.edu or 203-254-4110.
Getting Settled

Connecticut Identification Card

In Connecticut, a non-driver identification card can be used as photo identification if you don't have a CT driver's license or if your license has been suspended. You can use your CT identification card for a number of things, including traveling, getting an apartment, or opening a bank account. If you are a non-U.S. citizen, you must apply in person at a DMV Hub Office. For more information, please visit dmvarg/ct-connecticut/id-cards.php.

Banking

Opening a Bank Account

Upon arrival, students should open a bank account as soon as possible. The University has a Bank of America ATM located on campus in the Barone Campus Center. America First Credit Union is also located on campus in Gonzaga Auditorium. Other banks in close proximity to campus include Webster, TD, Chase, Wells Fargo, Citibank, People's United and Hudson City Savings Bank.

It is extremely important for all students to have a U.S. checking account to pay bills and tuition, transfer, withdraw, and deposit funds. This should/can be done either before or during International Orientation.

Credit Cards

If students do not have a credit history in the U.S., they may be unable to obtain a credit card. However, students can establish a credit history by obtaining a “Secure Credit Card,” which requires students to deposit money on the card in order to use.

Getting Settled

Area Hotels

There are a number of different hotels for students and their families. Best Western Plus Fairfield Hotel, Fairfield Marriott Inn & Suites, Best Western Plus Fairfield Hotel, Best Western Plus Fairfield Hotel, and Fairfield Inn & Suites are a few of the options. Contact a realtor, which you can find on: FairfieldGuide.com or Zillow.com.

Area Resources

There are many resources available on campus, such as the New Haven Register, CT Post, and The New York Times. Additionally, Fairfield generates a weekly news publication called News@Fairfield and a student-run newspaper, The Fairfield Mirror.

Finding Housing

Housing Search Strategies

Here are some suggestions for starting your search:

1. Contact a realtor, which you can find on: FairfieldGuide.com or Zillow.com.
2. Have a cell phone and a laptop computer to inquire about vacancies that become available. You will find that many apartment-leasing offices don’t answer calls and have voice mail or email only. It is best to have a plan for what to say to a potential landlord. Be sure to mention you are a Fairfield University student.
3. Think about transportation when looking at properties. Use a map to determine proximity to public transportation or determine how to access a personal vehicle. The GBT bus, StagBus, and MetroNorth Railroad can be combined to get students to and from certain areas.
4. Become familiar with housing language (on pages 16-17).
5. Prepare a Tenant Resume (optional, but recommended). This can be found on the Housing Hub: FairfieldGuide.com/gradstudenthousing.
6. Get a recommendation letter from the Office of Student Engagement - International Student Life to verify your finances and certify that you are a student. We may provide a letter or can speak with any landlord or property manager. Many property managers and landlords expect renters to have a credit score, which is based on a US finance history. Because you don’t have this score, we will do what we can to verify your finances and support your application. E-mail international@fairfield.edu if you need this letter or information.
7. Walk or drive around neighborhoods you like and look for “For Rent/For Lease” signs posted in the windows of houses and apartments.
8. Drive/walk by to see the places you are interested in to find out what the exterior and the neighborhood look like before making an appointment for viewing. When you find something you like, do not hesitate to let the landlord know immediately that you are interested. Have a check or money order ready to pay the deposit.
9. Prepare a list of questions to ask your potential landlord such as, “What utilities are included in the rent (water, gas, electricity)? What is the cost of gas and electricity per month? When will the apartment be available? How much is the security deposit? What is the parking availability? Are there laundry facilities located on site?
10. Meet potential roommates in person before making a commitment. Do not make arrangements to have a roommate from abroad. You would not want to move in with someone that might not be suitable for you.
11. Get all agreements in writing. Whenever you speak to your landlord, use written communication. This will give you support if there is a dispute about your arrangements.

GLOSSARY OF HOUSING TERMS

Bachelor............................. Small apartment without a kitchen. Sometimes a hot plate or microwave is provided.

Efficiency......................... One room for living, eating, and sleeping. The bathroom is separate.

Single or Studio................. Single room apartment with a small kitchen and a bathroom.

One Bedroom Efficiency......... Large single that has been converted into a one bedroom by dividing the room with doors. An efficiency should be smaller and cheaper than a normal one bedroom.

In-law House...................... Homeowner sometimes has a smaller structure behind or next to their property that can be used as a private living space. Size and features vary. Sometimes it is a converted garage or pool house.

Townhouse or Condominium... Private home or very spacious and luxurious apartment that sometimes has its own laundry, pool and recreational facilities.

Lease................................. A legal contract signed by both the manager and the tenant regarding the length of stay, price, and conditions of a rental agreement. It is important to not sign a lease for more than the amount of time you will stay. You are responsible for rent for the entire length of the lease. Violation of the lease agreement can result in a heavy financial penalty. Residents should understand all of the conditions of the lease before signing. Any negotiated variation should be set out in writing, initialed, and dated by both the tenant and the manager as an amendment to the lease.

Credit Check....................... A process in which the landlord verifies your credit history and confirms your bank information. International students or scholars who do not have a credit history in this country should not need to pay for a credit check, but it may be necessary to negotiate an agreement with the landlord in this case.

Deposit or Security Deposit... An additional amount you must pay when moving into an apartment (usually at least one or two month's rent) to guarantee occupancy, payment of rent, repair of damages, and professional cleaning after you leave. In most cases, the deposit is returned in full if there is no damage to your apartment at the end of your stay (there may be a slight deduction for cleaning). Inspect the apartment carefully when moving in and record any damages, so you won’t be charged when moving out.

First, Last, Deposit.............. This means that to move in, you must pay the first and last month's rent amount, plus the security deposit amount. Most rental apartments require this, but it is possible to find those that only require the deposit amount and the first month’s rent.

Rent................................. Payment made for living accommodations, usually on a monthly basis.

 Utilities......................... The term used for the extra charges for gas, electricity, cable television, and water. Plan on spending an extra $25-$100 per month depending on your lifestyle. Some students are careful about finding "gas stoves" and "non-halogen lamps" as they use less energy.

Sublet............................... Special arrangement where you live in someone's apartment in their place. Sublets are attractive because they are often short-term opportunities with furnished rooms and no deposit. However, it is usually best to ask the person renting if their manager or landlord knows about your agreement, in case the lease prohibits you from taking his / her place.

FP................................. FIREPLACE

4-Plex............................... A rental unit comprised of two ground floor or "garden" apartments and two second floor apartments.

2/2 or 3/2.......................... The first number indicates the number of bedrooms in the apartment. The second number indicates the number of bathrooms. Bathroom facilities include bathtub and/or shower, toilet (WC), and washbasin.

ABP................................. All bills paid. Your utilities (water, electricity, gas, sewage, garbage collection) have been included in your rent. You only have to arrange for optional telephone/Internet/television services.

A/C or AIR......................... Air-conditioning

BR or BDRM....................... Bedroom

W/D................................. Washing machine and clothes dryer are provided.
Utility Services in your New Place

Often, when living in a rental property, you will be required to set up and maintain your own utility services. The fees for set up and the monthly costs are not usually included in your lease amount. However, oftentimes the landlord will include some of these utilities with the rent, and you will not need to arrange for set up. Discuss this matter with the landlord BEFORE you sign the lease agreement.

Heating Your Rental

There are several ways in which homes can be heated in Connecticut. Some rentals include heat with the rent. Pay attention to the listing. Each rental usually has one fixed option. Gas is cheapest and most common in cities/multiple unit rentals. Oil is the next cheapest option and is delivered by several companies and prices vary by time of year, company, and ordering. Electric heat can be expensive and is tied in with your electric bill. You can find utility prices by searching online.

Electricity

Your electric company will depend on the provider in the area you live. Inquire with your landlord when you make arrangements to begin your rental.

Water

Water is provided by each city or town you live in. Rental agreements/leases will explain how the water bill is handled. You most likely won’t have to pay for your water, but make sure the details are clear.

Internet and Television Services

Car Registration

In the state of Connecticut, a car must be registered with 60 days of moving to the state and 30 days of purchase. Registration can be completed at the Department of Motor Vehicles. The Connecticut Emissions Program identifies vehicles that are high emitters, and requires that they be repaired to prevent excessive air pollution. If your vehicle failed its emissions test, it is exceeding the allowable emissions standards for the year in which it was manufactured. Vehicles that fail need to be repaired and retested within 30 calendar days from the date of the initial test. Emissions tests identify the specific area(s) where a vehicle is deficient; however, it does not diagnose the cause of failure.

Car Insurance

Drivers have a financial responsibility for personal injury and property damage caused during accidents. The State of Connecticut requires that all drivers to have car insurance. Major insurance companies include AAA, Allstate, State Farm, and GEICO. International students will need a valid Connecticut driver’s license in order to get car insurance.

PARKING IN FAIRFIELD

Parking at Fairfield University

All student, faculty and staff vehicles must be registered with the Parking Office located on the ground floor of Loyola Hall. Tel: 203-254-4000, ext. 2745. Vehicles that receive multiple violations for being unregistered will be immobilized and towed at owner's expense.

First-year and sophomore resident students are not authorized to have automobiles on campus (including weekends). Students who violate this policy will lose their privilege to register cars as junior.

Visit Parking Office web site fairfield.edu/parking.

Private and parochial schools are additional educational options for families. These schools often charge tuition. A comprehensive list can be found at privateschoolsreview.com.

Homeschooling is another option for families in Connecticut. There are many ways to homeschool children but it is important to make sure lesson plans comply with state laws. The Connecticut Homeschool Network website is a great resource to learn more about this type of education. Their website is cthomeschoolnetwork.org.

U.S. Educational Structure

Pre-school is not mandatory in the state of Connecticut, but is highly recommended. Fairfield Public Schools offer preschool programs at the Early Childhood Center, Burr Preschool, and Dwight Preschool for 3 and 4 year olds. There are also a number of different private preschools in the area. Information about these can be found at fairfieldpubliclibrary.org/childrens. Contact the schools/centers directly with any questions.

Children reaching the age of five on or before January 1st of any year shall be eligible for kindergarten in the preceding September. Children reaching the age of five before January 2 and February 28 may qualify for accelerated kindergarten admission entrance in the preceding September if they qualify as superior in the various aspects of readiness. Many schools require certain immunizations before they can begin attending school.

Call toll free at (877) 748-5123 or e-mail parentscom@fairfield.edu with any questions.

Childcare
Families are responsible for finding suitable childcare for their children while in the U.S. One resource near the Fairfield campus is Creative Minds Early Childhood Center at 254 Greenfield Street in Fairfield, CT. For more information, please visit creativeminddec.com.

Education for Children
In Connecticut, all children between the ages of 5 and 18 are required to be registered in school. Before entering school, all children are required to have medical exams and be up to date on immunizations. In the U.S., all children are eligible for free public school education in their local school district. Most schools offer after-school programming and English as a Second Language instruction. To enroll in the Fairfield Public School District, please visit fairfieldschools.org.

Unattended Children
In Connecticut, there are strict laws that forbid leaving children unattended in cars, in public or at home. The law states that leaving a child unattended is considered to be “child neglect” since there is a risk of a child getting harmed.

Accepting Public Assistance
Non-immigrants are not eligible for public assistance in the U.S. Unfortunately, the cost of health insurance can be high for families. Some families are unable to afford health insurance and choose to risk not having health insurance coverage. In some instances, hospital staff or doctors may even suggest that an international student or scholar take advantage of such public assistance. The consequences of accepting assistance are that if you leave the U.S, you will not be able to reenter the country until the public assistance has been repaid.

HEALTH INSURANCE
All visiting students and their dependents are required to maintain or purchase Fairfield University’s International Student Health Insurance. All F-1 and J-1 visa students will be automatically enrolled in this insurance plan. This requirement was established to maintain the health and well being of students, which is integral to the quality of their college experience. To view the policy and price details, go to gallagherstudent.com/fairfield.

J-1 Insurance Coverage Requirements
The insurance provided to you has been defined by U.S. federal regulations and is required for all J-1 students and scholars. All F-1 and J-1 visa students will be automatically enrolled in this insurance plan. Please visit gallagherstudent.com/fairfield for additional information.

Family Legal Matters
Connecticut law requires all drivers and passengers to wear safety belts. Children must ride in a proper child safety seat until they are above eight years old and 60 pounds. In addition, infants must ride in a rear-facing seat until they are two years old AND 30 pounds. After a child exceeds these limits, the child must be secured in a booster seat with a lap and shoulder belt, until they outgrow the booster seat.

Failing to follow the child safety seat rules can result in a fine and an order to complete a car seat education class.

WHERE TO GET MEDICAL CARE
All full-time undergraduate students can use the Student Health Center. The Health Center is open daily when classes are in session. Services provided include the diagnosis and treatment of common illnesses and injuries, allergy shots and a women’s clinic. Health Center clinicians are able to order laboratory tests and prescription medications when indicated. Students who have prescriptions from their private healthcare provider for long-term conditions should arrange to have these prescriptions filled at a local pharmacy prior to coming to Fairfield University.

In the case of a medical emergency, students will be transported to a local hospital for care. Bridgeport Hospital and St. Vincent’s Hospital both serve Fairfield University students.

Confidentiality of Your Medical Records
By law, information you share with a doctor, nurse, or other medical provider must be kept confidential. A doctor in the U.S. is not permitted to contact your family, friends, or anyone else to discuss your medical condition, symptoms, illness, or treatment without your written permission unless your life is in danger or if you are unconscious or unable to make medical decisions.

Counseling & Psychological Services
Counseling & Psychological Services (C&PS) is a confidential service for full-time undergraduate students. Graduate students may utilize this service for a single session to initiate a referral. Fairfield’s Counseling Center is accredited by the International Association of Counseling Services (IACS) and provides individual and group psychotherapy by professional psychotherapists to help students deal with adjustment issues, mood disorders, relationship problems, family issues, and emotional distress.

Services offered include psychological counseling, crisis intervention, psychiatric services, and substance abuse assessment, including Choices, Eating Disorder Treatment and Referral, and Sexual Assault Response. To learn more about the comprehensive services offered by C&P, call 203-254-4000, ext. 2146 or visit fairfield.edu/cps.

PUBLIC SAFETY

Open 24 hours per day, 365 days per year, the Department of Public Safety is authorized to prevent, investigate, and report any violations of state or federal law and/or Fairfield University policies and regulations on campus. Students can report any potential criminal act or emergency to any officer or representative of the department. Public Safety officers patrol the campus in cars, on foot, and on bicycles. Officers are trained as emergency medical technicians (EMTs), and Public Safety is the first-responder for medical emergencies on campus.

Public Safety encourages all members of the community to practice basic crime prevention practices by leaving valuables at home, always locking doors, and traveling with friends.

Public Safety officers perform a number of other services on campus, including an escort service, coordinating security needs for campus events, and parking enforcement.

Fairfield University utilizes an emergency notification system called StagAlert, to notify and send information to students, faculty, and staff in the event of a significant emergency. The StagAlert system is able to send messages simultaneously as voice calls, text messages, and e-mail messages. Depending on the nature of the situation, any or all of these methods may be used to communicate with the intended recipients.

Additionally, Public Safety encourages all students, faculty and staff to use the smart phone app, LiveSafe. LiveSafe activates and streams real-time video and audio, GPS location and two-way texting to Fairfield University’s DPS dispatch center. LiveSafe allows dispatchers and first responders to monitor information in real time, streaming from a person’s phone, enabling a quicker and more effective response by our Public Safety Officers.

TAKING CARE OF YOURSELF

Culture Shock and How to Adjust

Culture shock is an experience a person may have when moving to a cultural environment that is different from his or her own culture. This can include culture, language, customs and the loss of support systems. Being able to anticipate feelings associated with culture shock, and having an understanding of the cycle of adjustment helps minimize the difficulty of adjusting to life in the U.S. Feelings of culture shock can last anywhere from a few days to a few months. Feel free to reach out to the Fairfield University Office of Student Engagement International Student Life to speak with an advisor.

FAIRFIELD UNIVERSITY POLICIES

Fairfield University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, marital status, veteran’s status, political ideology, religion, national or ethnic origin, age, or disability in the administration of educational policies or programs, admission and employment policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs. As a Catholic, Jesuit institution, Fairfield University values and celebrates the diverse backgrounds, cultures, experiences, and perspectives of our community. Through the promotion and protection of diversity, the Fairfield University community creates an environment where holistic development, academic excellence, and a commitment to the well-being of others can flourish. The University is committed to maintaining a diverse and multicultural community in which the dignity and worth of each of its members is respected. The University strongly condemns any unlawful or wrongful discrimination against the rights of others.

Sexual Misconduct Policy

Fairfield University is committed to providing a learning environment free of gender-based discrimination, including sexual harassment. Sexual misconduct is a form of sexual harassment prohibited by this policy. This policy is intended to guide students on the University’s general response policy to incidents of sexual misconduct, the resources available to victims of sexual misconduct, and the sexual misconduct prevention initiatives of the University.

Drug Policy

The possession, use, or distribution of illicit or illegal drugs is strictly forbidden. The possession of drug paraphernalia is also prohibited. In addition to University disciplinary action, responsible students are subject to arrest and prosecution by state and/or federal authorities. The improper use of prescription drugs is a serious problem on college campuses. For this reason, it is a violation of University conduct rules for a student to be in possession of another person’s prescription medication, or for a student to provide another person with drugs that have been prescribed for that student. Sanctions will be assessed based on the basis of the question but can include a fine, disciplinary probation, drug education, and/or referral for evaluation, counseling, or Restorative Mentoring.

Fairfield University Smoking Policy

Smoking is prohibited in all University buildings and facilities. The use of electronic cigarettes, vaporizers and hookahs are also prohibited in all University buildings and facilities. Consistent with applicable state law, this prohibition includes all of the student residences (residence halls, townhouses, and apartments). In addition, individuals smoking are expected to be at least 30 feet from the building or whatever greater distance is required so as not to allow smoke to travel back into the building. Violations of the smoking policy may result in a fine, an educational activity, and/or community service.
LEGAL RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Connecticut Laws

Smoking and E-Cigarettes
Smoking is prohibited in many public places including: state and local government buildings; any area of a health care institution; any area of a retail food store; any restaurant; any bar/tavern; within a school building while school is in session or student activities are being conducted; any passenger elevator; in any dormitory of any public or private institution of higher education; and any dog racing track or off-track betting facility. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require any smoking area in any building. Exceptions to the law include: 1) correctional facilities; 2) designated smoking areas in psychiatric facilities; 3) public housing projects; 4) classrooms where demonstration smoking is taking place as part of a medical or scientific experiment or lesson; 5) smoking rooms provided by employers pursuant to section 31-40g Connecticut General Statutes; 6) outdoor areas of restaurants subject to certain conditions; and 7) tobacco bars as defined. The operator of a hotel, motel or similar lodging may allow guests to smoke in not more than 25 percent of their rooms.

Car Safety Belts and Seats
Connecticut law states that drivers and front seat passengers must wear safety belts at all times. Rear seat passengers aged 4-16 years old must wear safety belts as well. Children must ride in a proper child safety seat until they are above eight years old and 60 pounds. In addition, adults must ride in a rear-facing seat until they are two years old and 30 pounds. After a child exceeds these limits, the child must be secured in a booster seat with a lap and shoulder belt until they outgrow the booster seat. Failing to follow the child safety seat rules can result in fines and is free to students. While filing your taxes may sound difficult, there are a number of benefits to filing your taxes other than it’s the law:

• You might get a refund. Some international students will qualify for a refund due to tax treaties and a lack of serious income if they’ve earned income in the US.
• Protect taxation of your worldwide income.
• You fulfill your visa obligations. All international students must file at least Form 8843 in order to remain legal under F, J, M & Q visas, even if you didn’t earn any money in the US.

Income Tax
Income tax includes wages, scholarships and earnings on investment. The tax is withheld by the employer from the employee’s paycheck as an estimated tax payment. International students must file an annual tax report by April 15.

At the start of your employment, employees must complete a W-4 form. The form determines how much will be withheld from the payroll for taxes. Most international students are required to file as “single.” The employer will be able to help employees complete the W-4 form.

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) is a U.S. federal agency that collects income tax. Visit the State of Connecticut Department of Revenue Services at http://portal.ct.gov/.

After leaving the U.S., you must file a U.S./Connecticut State tax return for the period you were in the U.S. This tax report is due in the April of the year following your stay in the U.S. All tax information is available on the IRS website.
