

Fairfield
UNIVERSITY

Academic & Career Development Center

UNDERGRADUATE ACCESSIBILITY RESOURCES

ACADEMIC & CAREER DEVELOPMENT CENTER

Aloysius P. Kelley, S.J. Center • 203-254-4081 • ACDC@fairfield.edu

Hours of Operation: Monday - Friday, 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

At Fairfield University, we offer a comprehensive array of services for our students. We provide students with the tools to enable them to feel on equal ground with their peers, while giving them the freedom to develop more self-esteem and confidence in their abilities to succeed. The Center facilitates effective, reasonable classroom accommodations for all students on campus who disclose a disability and/or a temporary impairment, meet the eligibility criteria, and request accommodations. Our goal is to help to enhance a student's development socially, cognitively and academically to give them the extra support they need to achieve success at Fairfield University.

Below is an outline of all of the resources that students have access to through the Academic & Career Development Center:

The Accessibility Support Staff provides support for students with temporary impairments and accommodations for students with disabilities. The Accessibility Support Staff is available to help with the following:

- Academic Accommodations
- Campus Life Accessibility (housing, parking, dining, emergency response list)
- Academic Skills Development (study skills, time management, executive functioning)
- Assistive and Adaptive Technology
- Obtaining materials in accessible formats
- Disability Awareness Programming

The Academic Support staff is available to help you with the following:

- Students in transition
- Academic skills & learning resources
- Academic support
- Supplemental advising
- Academic policies & requirements
- Registration
- Major/Minor declaration & exploration

The Career Services staff is available to help you with the following:

- Exploring potential majors and careers
- Resume development and critiques
- Cover Letters
- Interview skills
- Developing networking skills
- LinkedIn profile development
- Internship & job search strategies

Additional Resources

Library

Brainstorming, researching, and citation assistance. Learn about library services or schedule an individual research appointment with a member of the library staff at <https://www.fairfield.edu/library/services/>

Writing Center

Peer tutors are available to help students work on any type of writing - from essays to lab reports. To make an appointment at the Writing Center, please call (203) 254-4000 ext. 2214, or go to the lower level of the library, near the Center for Academic Excellence.

Mathematics Center

Peer tutoring is available for statistics and first year calculus courses. Make an appointment online at <https://www2.fairfield.edu/mathcenter/login.lasso>

Faculty Office Hours - Check Class Syllabus

Academic Advising- Faculty Advisor or Academic Support Staff in ACDC

Counselors & Psychological Services (203) 254-4000 ext. 2146

Campus Ministry Personnel (203) 254-4000 ext. 3405

Department of Public Safety (203) 254-4000 ext. 4090

Health Center (203) 254-4000 ext. 2241