Mission Statement of the St. Robert Bellarmine Pre-Law Society

1. To involve students from their arrival at Fairfield University as first-year students through to senior year, in events that promote their interest in a law career.

2. To establish connections between lawyer alumni and students.

3. To provide assistance to students preparing their applications to law school.

4. To advise students about the availability of programs supported by the University to aid in their preparation for the LSATs and arrange for their participation.

Upcoming Events

RED MASS
Sunday, September 28, 2014
Egan Chapel of St. Ignatius Loyola at 9 a.m.
The St. Robert Bellarmine Pre-Law Society and the Diocese of Bridgeport are cohosting a Red Mass at the Egan Chapel. The Mass will be said at 9 a.m. and will be celebrated by His Excellency, Bishop Frank Caggiano. The Red Mass has its origins in the Middle Ages and is celebrated in honor of judges, lawyers, and law students. All are invited to attend the Mass. There will also be a brunch beginning at 10 a.m. in the Barone Campus Center Oak Room. Among the invitees are Fairfield lawyer alumni, and members of the Fairfield County bar. The featured speaker will discuss the recent Hobby Lobby decision made by the United States Supreme Court in June. The Pre-Law Program will pay for your admission to brunch. Come learn about the tradition of the Red Mass and network with alumni and members of the local bar at this unique event!

If you are planning on attending the brunch reception please R.S.V.P. to Sue Quinlivan squinlivan@fairfield.edu by September 16. Your R.S.V.P. is important to ensure catering has an accurate number of guests for food preparations.

LSAT Preparation
If you are interested in preparing for the LSAT during the 2014 – 2015 academic year, please know that the St. Robert Bellarmine Pre-Law Society can help. If you are interested in participating in a class held on campus, an online prep course or individual tutoring please contact Sue Quinlivan, Associate Director of Career Planning as soon as possible at squinlivan@fairfield.edu.

The Pre-Law Program offers a subsidy to help defray the cost of these preparatory programs. Make plans now to give yourself adequate time to prepare for this important requirement for law school admission.
