Making Your Blackboard Course Available to Students

In order for students to have access to a Blackboard course, the instructor needs to make the course Available to students.

1. Log into your course and in the Control Panel located in the lower left, click on Customization and then Properties.

2. Under Set Availability on the Properties page, select Yes. Click Submit.