Students, Faculty, and Staff:

During the final weeks of the academic year, we will have the opportunity to recognize members of the Class of 2013 who have made an impact during their four years at Fairfield University. We are asking for your help in identifying our outstanding seniors.

Please consider submitting a nomination for a student or students from the Class of 2013 for the St. Ignatius Loyola Medal, the William J. Kramer ’60 Humanitarian Award, and the Student Achievement Awards.

To submit a nomination, visit the online awards site.

St. Ignatius Loyola Medal is given to a senior who has committed her/himself to high academic standards and substantial involvement in community service and/or extracurricular activities. The student maximizes opportunities for emotional, social, and intellectual growth throughout all four years at Fairfield University and exemplifies the true spirit of Jesuit education.

William J. Kramer ’60 Humanitarian Award recognizes a senior who has shown a commitment to volunteerism and service to an external community activity that best exemplifies the Ignatian tradition of being men and women for and with others.

Student Achievement Awards recognize seniors who have shown exceptional dedication to and enhancement of a specific Fairfield University program, activity, organization, or project. The student’s commitment to this activity must have resulted in the activity attaining a new level of achievement.

Nominations will be accepted through this Friday, March 22. There will be a formal recognition ceremony on Monday, April 29 at 4 p.m. in the Kelley Center Presentation Room.

Thank you in advance for your nomination. Please contact Elissa Carroll at ext. 2376 or ecarroll@fairfield.edu if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Karen Donoghue
Dean of Students
